

Scholarship Announcement for Community College Students Supply Chain, Logistics, Transportation, and Distribution

Application Deadline: November 1, 2010

CSCMP – Southern California Roundtable announces its 2010 Scholarship Competition. Two scholarships of $1000 will be awarded to promising Southern California community college students pursuing studies in business, engineering, economics, and public policy, plus others with a demonstrated interest in a career in supply chain management, logistics, transportation, distribution, or a closely related field. These awards are cash grants that can be used for any bona fide educational purpose.

To Apply: Send a letter of application to the address below. Letters are at most three pages, plus any related documentation you may wish to include, and must contain complete contact information, work and academic history, current work and academic affiliation and standing, degree objective with expected date of graduation, and current GPA. The letter should also describe your civilian, military, or academic work history, previous college attendance, and any project work, personal activities, or other evidence of your suitability and interest in a career in the supply chain industry. You must also include a single letter of recommendation from a faculty member or professional colleague familiar with your history, your academic career, or your career goals, who should comment on your academic performance and career potential.

SEND ALL MATERIALS TO:

Rola Halawanji
Office of Economic Resource Development - Workforce Development
Long Beach City College
1305 E. Pacific Coast Highway
